DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-5 allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not anticipate nor render obviousness as to a method of fabricating a display with the step of providing a source line around a pixel electrode on a substrate wherein the respective steps are implemented substantially under atmospheric conditions.
3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.
5. Claims 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over "Nuts & Volts" magazine, vol. 21, no. 6, June 2000, pp. 38, "All Electronics Corporation", 16 Character X 2 Line LCD with Backlight, CAT# LCD-53, in view of Examiner's Knowledge.
6. Pertaining to claim 6, "All Electronics Corporation" discloses a manufacturing method for a display device having a terminal for receiving external signal, comprising:

a step for providing a protective film on a surface of the terminal (the Examiner takes the position that when the display is shipped, it is packaged in a moisture proof wrapping, i.e., I have ordered several many years ago);

a step for forming a display region with the protective film provided;

and a step for removing the protective film, wherein the surface of the terminal is exposed (i.e., when the display is received by a hobbyist, this step is performed).

7. Pertaining to claim 7, "All Electronics Corporation" discloses the manufacturing method according to claim 6, wherein the protective film is a seal attached to a portion of the terminal, and the seal is peeled off and removed (i.e., bubble wrap is normally taped to the secure the display).

Objections

8. Claims 8 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
